IUGS/GSL publishing agreement

This volume is published under an agreement between the International Union of Geological Sciences and the Geological Society of London and arises from IGCP 499 project on “Devonian land–sea interaction: evolution of ecosystems and climate”.

GSL is the publisher of choice for books related to IUGS activities, and the IUGS receives a royalty for all books published under this agreement.

Books published under this agreement are subject to the Society’s standard rigorous proposal and manuscript review procedures.

It is recommended that reference to all or part of this book should be made in one of the following ways:

KÖNIGSHOF, P. (ed.) 2009. Devonian Change: Case Studies in Palaeogeography and Palaeoecology. Geological Society, London, Special Publications, 314.

GEORGE, A. D., TRINAJSTIC, K. M. & CHOW, N. 2009. Frasnian reef evolution and palaeogeography, SE Lennard Shelf, Canning Basin, Australia. In: KÖNIGSHOF, P. (ed.) Devonian Change: Case Studies in Palaeogeography and Palaeoecology. Geological Society, London, Special Publications, 314, 73–107.

THE GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Geological Society of London (GSL) was founded in 1807. It is the oldest national geological society in the world and the largest in Europe. It was incorporated under Royal Charter in 1825 and is Registered Charity 210161.

The Society is the UK national learned and professional society for geology with a worldwide Fellowship (FGS) of over 9000. The Society has the power to confer Chartered status on suitably qualified Fellows, and about 2000 of the Fellowship carry the title (CGeol). Chartered Geologists may also obtain the equivalent European title, European Geologist (EurGeol). One fifth of the Society's fellowship resides outside the UK. To find out more about the Society, log on to www.geolsoc.org.uk.

The Geological Society Publishing House (Bath, UK) produces the Society's international journals and books, and acts as European distributor for selected publications of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists (AAPG), the Indonesian Petroleum Association (IPA), the Geological Society of America (GSA), the Society for Sedimentary Geology (SEPM) and the Geologists' Association (GA). Joint marketing agreements ensure that GSL Fellows may purchase these societies' publications at a discount. The Society's online bookshop (accessible from www.geolsoc.org.uk) offers secure book purchasing with your credit or debit card.

To find out about joining the Society and benefiting from substantial discounts on publications of GSL and other societies worldwide, consult www.geolsoc.org.uk, or contact the Fellowship Department at: The Geological Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London W1J 0BG: Tel. +44 (0)20 7434 9944; Fax +44 (0)20 7439 8975; E-mail: enquiries@geolsoc.org.uk.

For information about the Society's meetings, consult Events on www.geolsoc.org.uk. To find out more about the Society's Corporate Affiliates Scheme, write to enquiries@geolsoc.org.uk

Acknowledgements

On behalf of the leaders of the IGCP 499 I would like to express my thanks to the various institutions and numerous colleagues who helped to organize many meetings. For all participants the workshops and accompanying field trips offered a unique opportunity to get an insight into complex Devonian sequences at many places around the world. Cordial thanks are expressed to the local specialists for the organization and guidance of the field trips. We are grateful to these and many other individuals who helped make the workshops both successful and highly enjoyable.

I would like to express my thanks to the following companies and institutions for sponsoring: UNESCO/IUGS, German Science Foundation (DFG), German Federal Foreign Office.

I am particularly grateful to the following colleagues (and of course several anonymous reviewers) who have assisted by providing referee reports on manuscripts submitted for this Special Publication of the Geological Society: T.R. Becker, C. Brett, A. Embry, E. Gischler, R. Haude, U. Jansen, U. Linnemann, J. Marshall, B. Mistiaen, K. Oekentorp, J. Over, S. Peralta, R. Prokop, M. Roux, S. Schöder, G. Sevastopulo, P. Steemanns, M. Streef, J. Talent, K.-W. Tietze, R. Wicander and M. Zhu.
